ALL EXAM APPLICATIONS MUST BE SUBMITTED WITH A CHECK OR MONEY ORDER EITHER BY MAIL TO: ROME CIVIL SERVICE, 198 NORTH WASHINGTON STREET, ROME, NEW YORK 13440 OR DEPOSITED IN THE CITY HALL DROPBOX LOCATED NEAR THE FRONT ENTRANCE TO CITY HALL.

DUTIES:

This position is responsible for the enforcement of laws and ordinances and protection of lives and property in a designated area of an assigned shift; does related work as required. Duties consist primarily of routine patrol tasks, assisting in investigation of criminal offenses and the apprehension of criminals. Ordinarily, a Police Officer, whether on patrol work or on special assignment, works under the supervision or direction of a higher ranking officer.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

At time of application, all candidates must be a high school graduate, be in possession of a high school equivalency diploma (GED) or be in possession of a United States Armed Forces GED.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS:

- A.) Candidates must possess a valid NYS Driver's License at the time of application which must be maintained throughout employment.
- B.) United States Citizenship is required at time of application.

AGE:

Candidates must be at least nineteen (19) years old on or before the date of the examination to take the Police Officer exam. Eligibility for appointment as a Police Officer begins when the candidate reaches age twenty (20). Date of birth must be entered on application.

Candidates who reach their thirty-fifth (35) birthday on or before the date of the written examination are not qualified except as follows: Section 58.1(a) of the New York State Civil Service Law requires that applicants not be "more than thirty-five (35) years of age as of the date when the applicant takes the written examination..." Candidates who may be impacted by the maximum age requirement and who are requesting an alternate test date (for active military duty, religious accommodations, or for an alternate test date situation which meets the conditions of the agency's alternate test date policy) to discuss their request.

Candidates may have a period of military duty or terminal leave up to six years, as defined in Section 243 (10a) of the Military law, deducted from their age for purposes of determining whether they meet the age requirement.

APPLICATION FEE:

A TWENTY-FIVE DOLLAR ($25.00) non-refundable application fee is required and must accompany each application at time of filing. Payment must be made by check or money order only payable to Rome Civil Service Commission. Applications postmarked after the last filing date will be returned to the applicant with the application fee.

VACANCIES: A corresponding civil service eligible list will be established from this examination and will be used to fill any applicable vacancies for this title in the City of Rome jurisdiction as they may occur.

RETURNED CHECK POLICY:

Applicants whose personal checks are returned for insufficient funds will be notified by the City Treasurer's Office. A returned check fee of $20.00 will be added to the examination application fee and will be required to be paid in cash or money order in the City of Rome Treasurer's Office at Rome City Hall, 198 North Washington Street, Rome, New York 13440.

RESIDENCY:

Residency is not required to participate in City of Rome Civil Service exams or to apply for general employment. Preference in appointment may be given to successful candidates that legally reside in the City of Rome at time of appointment.

DRIVER'S LICENSE REQUIREMENT:

Candidates must possess and maintain a valid NYS Driver's License at time of appointment and throughout employment.

SUBJECTS OF THE WRITTEN EXAMINATION:

A written test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and /or abilities in the following areas:

1. SITUATIONAL JUDGMENT: These questions test for the ability to identify appropriate and effective responses to work-related challenges. You will be presented with scenarios that reflect the types of challenges one could encounter in a work environment. Each scenario will be followed by several responses to the scenario. You must rate the effectiveness of each response.

2. LANGUAGE FLUENCY: These questions test for the ability to read, understand, and present a clear and accurate summary of information. For some questions, you will be given a brief reading passage followed by four statements, each summarizing the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given several sentences, one of which contains a spelling, grammatical, or punctuation error. You must then select the line that contains the error.

3. INFORMATION ORDERING AND LANGUAGE SEQUENCING: These questions test for the ability to properly identify the sequence or order of events, or to organize information to fit a timeline. You will be given a brief reading passage followed by one or more questions. You must identify the proper sequence of events in order to answer one or more questions.

4. PROBLEM SENSITIVITY & REASONING: These questions test for the ability to apply information and to identify a problem or potential problem. For some questions, you will be given information in the form of policies, rules, regulations, laws, followed by a situation. You must then identify the problem and apply the information to select the best course of action to take. For other questions, you will be given a scenario and mock witness statements. You must use this information to answer one or more questions about the scenario.

5. SELECTIVE ATTENTION: These questions test for the ability to focus on completing a task and to pay attention to important details while performing repetitive and monotonous tasks. You will be presented with a series of letters, symbols, and/or numbers. You must select the choice that contains the series of letters, symbols, and/or number that matches exactly.

6. VISUALIZATION: These questions test for the ability to imagine how something will look when it is moved around or when its parts are changed, moved, or rearranged. You will be presented with an image of a face followed by four images of faces. Each face is disguised or altered in some way. Three of the images have a difference in facial structure or facial features. You must select the choice that contains the image with the identical facial structure and facial features.

7. SPATIAL ORIENTATION: These questions test for the ability to understand how to navigate within spaces or how to get from one point to another. You will be provided with a map followed by one or more questions. You must imagine yourself at a certain location and orient yourself to the direction you would move to get to another location in the shortest (least distance) route.

CALCULATORS ARE NOT PERMITTED FOR THIS EXAM

This written examination will be prepared and rated in accordance with Section 23(2) of the Civil Service Law. The provisions of the New York State Civil Service Law, rules and regulations dealing with the preparation and rating of examinations will apply to this examination.

The rating key for this examination will be established by the New York State Civil Service Commission prior to the date of the test, upon recommendation of a committee of police experts who will review all the questions for appropriateness and the key answers for correctness. There will be no review of the questions by candidates. This committee was selected with the assistance and endorsement of the Police Conference of New York, Inc., the New York State Association of PBA's, Inc., the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police, Inc., and the NYS Sheriff's Association.

A Guide for the Written Test for the Entry-Level Law Enforcement Officer Series (for all municipalities except White Plains) is available at the New York State website: <https://www.cs.ny.gov/testing/testguides.cfm>

Candidates that achieve a minimum qualifying score of 70.0% or higher on the NEW YORK STATE CIVIL SERVICE WRITTEN EXAM and if reachable for appointment from the resulting eligible list will be required to participate in and successfully pass each of the following individual phases of qualification:

1. PHYSICAL AGILITY TEST: Candidates appearing on the resulting eligible list who are reachable for appointment will be required to participate in and successfully pass a New York State approved Physical Agility Test. Additional information regarding this test is available by visiting: <http://www.criminaljustice.ny.gov/ops/docs/registry/policeapptsmed.pdf> Physical Agility Test candidates that are not able to successfully pass the physical agility test will be officially removed from further appointment consideration.

2. BACKGROUND INVESTIGATION: In accordance with Section 58 of the Civil Service Law, there will be a background investigation conducted in accordance with the standards of the municipal police training council (MPTC). Derogatory information will be evaluated and may result in disqualification. All convictions must be reported. Conviction of a felony or misdemeanor, or any falsified or omitted information, may bar appointment or result in removal after appointment, depending upon the relationship of the violation or omission to the duties of the position.

3. POLYGRAPH EXAMINATION: Candidates that successfully pass the background investigation phase will then be required to submit to and must successfully pass a polygraph examination.

4. PSYCHOLOGICAL EVALUATION: In accordance with Section 58 of the Civil Service Law, candidates will be required to participate in a psychological evaluation to determine your fitness to perform the essential duties of the position prior to appointment. Failure to meet the standards may result in your offer of employment being rescinded or in your disqualification. An eligible will be called for a psychological assessment as needed to fill existing and anticipated vacancies.

Candidates that receive satisfactory results in each of the above phases of qualification will be interviewed by City administration whereby final candidate selection will be made.

5. SUCCESSFUL COMPLETION OF POLICE ACADEMY TRAINING: Appointed candidates are sworn into public service and are then required to attend and successfully complete basic training for Police Officers.
