

On behalf of the administration, Patrolman Wilfredo Huembes has been awarded the Rome Police Department's Officer of the Quarter. Patrolman Huembes deserves recognition for his high level of professionalism, self-motivation, and strong commitment toward building community relationships.

Despite Patrolman Huembes having responded to a high number of calls for emergency service during this quarter, which resulted in ten arrests, he sought out additional opportunities to positively interact with community members on a personal level. Patrolman Huembes demonstrated empathy, humility, and patience while speaking with an individual undergoing a mental health crisis. Patrolman Huembes often represents the department at community events, a direct reflection of his positive demeanor and enthusiastic attitude. Patrolman Huembes was directly involved in multiple commercial burglary investigations, which resulted in arrests. Patrolman Huembes was frequently relied upon to assist his colleagues and regularly volunteered for challenging assignments.

The actions of Patrolman Huembes have brought credit to himself and the Rome Police Department.
